

Laghu Siddhanta-kaumudi.

- Provision for English Translation and Explanation is made (Incomplete)
- Some of the commands are made available at a click away using the right mouse button.

1. Shabdarupa of Shiva - Roman Script (Brief Mode)

The Swamiji was the Honourary President of the Organizing Committee of the 10th World Sanskrit Conference held at Taralabalu Kendra in Bangalore in the year 1997. The Swamiji is a happy blending of both traditional knowledge and modern science, and has put in a lot of efforts in making this software more useful to students as well as scholars of Sanskrit grammar. It is menu driven and is very user friendly. Any person with a little knowledge of operating the computer can run the programme.

The present version (1.0) is only a preliminary version (unedited) having minimum features:

- All the Sutras of Panini are given in Roman script using standard diacritical marks (Complete)
- Pada-Patha: Splitting of Sandhis in the Sutras for easy comprehension (Incomplete)
- Vrittis are given on the Sutras as found in the Siddhanta Kaumudi and Laghu Siddhanta-kaumudi (Incomplete).
- Sutras can be sorted either in the order of Ashtadhyayi or Siddhanta Kaumudi or

2. Shabdarupa of Shiva - Devanagari Script (Brief Mode)

3. Shabdarupa of Hari - Roman Script (Brief Mode)

4. Shabdarupa of Hari - Devanagari Script (Brief Mode)

5. Shabdarupa of Shambhu - Roman Script (Brief Mode)

6. Shabdarupa of Shambhu - Devanagari Script (Brief Mode)

7. Shabdarupa of Jnana - Roman Script (Brief Mode)

8. Shabdarupa of Jnana - Devanagari Script (Brief Mode)

The higher version, to be released soon, would have the option of selecting Roman script or Devanagari script. The Vrittis in Siddhanta Kaumudi and Laghu Kaumudi will also be given separately. The data is being revised and updated.

(Source Website/Courtesy :

Sri Taralabalu Jagadguru Brihanmath

Sirigere - 577541

Karnataka, India

E-mail : swamiji@vsnl.com

Website : www.taralabalu.org)